

Eastern Star Home & Star Court Suites News

Pedicures were the start of our week. Some choose polish, some just want trimmed and some look forward to the massages. On Tuesday we had Marie Mason's 99th Birthday Party with music by Mark Remily. She chose angel food cake with strawberries and cool whip to share with all her guests. Doug Tipton joined the guys at Men's Table Time. An afternoon they look forward to catching up on the area happenings. Today we will be holding Fancy Fingers throughout the whole building. In the evening we will have Wednesday Bingo Night at 7pm. On Thursday we will have birthday party at 3pm for Marie Flottmeyer in the nursing home dining room. The activity Friday afternoon will join together on the front patio for Story Sparkers and patriotic cocktails.

The Fourth of July weekend will consist of parade festivities at 10am, followed by broasted chicken dinner, a Patriotic Video in the afternoon and an evening of card playing. On Sunday Pastor Keith Kraft will lead the worship service.

All of us here at the Eastern Star Home would like to wish you a very happy Fourth of July for the 250th Birthday of the USA. Stop in and see us anytime.
