The Redfield Area Snow Queen Sienna Stoner joined us at 5 O'clock Somewhere on Friday. Sienna is a CNA here at the Eastern Star Home and she shared with us a power point of pictures and highlights at the State Snow Queen Festival. After a time of question and answers she visited with the residents one on one and even poised for several pictures in her beautiful red sequin dress.

In honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Day we had an activity of trivia and did you knows. On Tuesday Butch Odegard joined the guys at Men's Table Time for an afternoon of visiting and companionship. Our favorite game of bingo was played with fun prizes. Today we will be playing dominos at 3pm with bingo in the evening at 7pm. Brian Fallon and Connie Newman will be celebrating their birthday together with homemade apple pie 'n ice cream and music with Mark Remily on Thursday at 3pm. Then on Friday Caroline Lambert will be celebrating her birthday at 3pm with angel food cake and strawberries. For our weekend events we will have bingo and cards on Saturday and on Sunday we will have church with Pastor Kevin Moore.

All of us here at the Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites would like to wish you a wonderful week. Check on our Facebook page for the latest pictures and happenings.
