

Eastern Star Home & Star Court Suites News

The Youngen's came down with colds so the activity director lead shooting sports and games for Monday's afternoon activity. On Tuesday Bill Green joined the guys at men's table time. They seem to enjoy this time of catching up. Thanksgiving Bingo was played on Tuesday. Today we will be holding Turkey Races for all the residents to participate in. In the evening at 7pm we will be playing bingo. Thanksgiving Day we will have the Macy's Day Thanksgiving Parade on in the dining room. We will be serving for dinner delicious turkey, dressing, sweet potatoes, side salad with dressing, cranberries, buns and pumpkin pie with cool whip. The day after Thanksgiving the residents will spend the afternoon relaxing and playing cards. The weekend will be filled with bingo and a Christmas Movie on Saturday and Pastor Keith Kraft from the Redfield Congregational Church will be leading the Sunday Worship Service.

Mark your calendar on December 13 Annual Christmas Open House 2pm -4pm with music by the Yelduz Shrine Chanters and holiday goodies. Follow us on our Facebook page for the latest updates and photos.
