

Eastern Star Home & Star Court Suites News

We took a trip to Crystal's Bar to start off the week. It's a nice time to visit with friends we haven't seen for a while. On Tuesday Billy Green joined a table full of guys at Men's Table Time. Our favorite game of bingo was played with Savannah Risetter as the caller Tuesday afternoon. Today we pampered our nursing home residents with pedicures by soaking, massaging, trimming and polishing for Fancy Feet. Mark Remily will be our Wednesday afternoon entertainment and bingo will be played at 7pm. Thursday we will have rosary at 9:30am and at 1:30pm we will watch the Redfield Methodist Church online. Throughout the day we will be taking van rides around the area and while we are taking rides the rest of the residents will be playing table games and cards. Friday we will hold the funeral service for Joyce Welke in our chapel at 10am with a viewing starting at 8:30am. Residents and staff will go uptown and watch the homecoming parade at 2pm. We look forward to seeing our kids, grandkids, great grandkids and our high school staff as they go through. Our ESH King Brian Fallon and Queen Marie Mason will be riding on our Eastern Star Home float. Check out the new magnetic signs Clayton and Sheryl Kloss purchased for us to use for our parade entries. This weekend we will be celebrating Marcene North's birthday at 3pm during "Five O'clock Somewhere" with Marsha Hofer and Carmen Davis bartending. In the evening we will be playing cards at 7pm and on Sunday we will have Pastor Ted Price leading our worship service at 3pm.

We have our Veteran's Day Vender Fair scheduled for Tuesday, November 11 from 10am – 5pm. If you would like a vender spot please contact Lisa Haigh at 605 460-0574. Watch the latest happening on our Eastern Star Home Facebook page.
